Subject: Arrest of Jack Ruby, w/m/43
May 1, 1954, for Carrying
Concealed Weapon (Pistol)

Sir:

On May 1, 1954, at 12:50 p.m., while working District #33 with Officer J. F. Holcomb, we received a disturbance call at the Vegas Club, 3508 Oak Lawn. Upon arrival, we found Jack Ruby and another white male named Alkone fighting near the front entrance inside the building. A waitress behind the bar stated "that man (Ruby) has a gun." Jack Ruby had a loaded Smith & Wesson .38 Special pistol in his right coat pocket.

The man named Alkone was employed as Manager of the Vegas Club owned by Jack Ruby. The fight started when Jack Ruby accused Alkone of taking money from the Club.

Respectfully,

Sir:

Re: Previous Arrests of Jack Ruby

On July 26, 1953 I was working with W. M. Wall, 859, on equad 56, I believe. That particular night Doctor George Boewell, a resident physician at Parkland Hospital, was with us.

We stopped at the B and B Cafe, 3520 Oak Lawn, about 3:45 a.m. At that time Jack Ruby was sitting at the counter with a small snub nose pistol in his pocket.

We waited until Ruby was through with his meal and contacted him outside the cafe. We then arrested him for carrying a pistol. When questioned about the pistol, Ruby stated that he had just closed his club at 1717 South Ervay, had carried his money home, and had forgotten to take the pistol out of his pocket.

Respectfully submitted,
